

County, Maryland.

FOURTH: That for a period well in excess of fifty (50) years, your Complainant Rice has used a right of way approximately fifteen (15) feet wide for a road which runs across the northeast corner of the Respondent's property. Your Complainant Rice has used the way to provide access by wagon and by foot, as well as by motor vehicle, from the land of your Complainant Rice to Putman Road, a public highway, for the purpose of hauling cut logs from the property of your Complainant Rice to the public highway, as well as for hunting, recreation, horseback riding, and as an access to your Complainant's property. Your Complainant has used the way under a claim of right openly, visibly, notoriously, and adversely to the Respondent and his predecessors in interest continuously for said period in excess of fifty (50) years.

FIFTH: That the use of the way by your Complainant Rice has been continuous and uninterrupted. Your Complainant Rice has used said way several times per week during that time of the year when he cuts wood to provide heat for his personal residence, as well as to permit certain relatives to cut wood and remove same from his properties for the purpose of providing heating wood for their personal residences. Said way is used approximately once a month or once every other month during the warmer months of the year.

SIXTH: That for a period in excess of eight (8) years your Complainant Jacobs has used the right of way described hereinbefore as a road across the Respondent's land to provide access to his property described herein. Your Complainant Jacobs' predecessors in title had used the way for a period of time in excess of thirty-five (35) years. Your Complainant Jacobs has used the way under a claim of right openly, visibly, notoriously, and adversely to the Respondent and his predecessors in interest continuously for said period in excess of eight (8) years, but he has also aided others personally in cutting wood on land along the said way since the 1930's.

SEVENTH: That the use of the way by your Complainant Jacobs has been continuous and uninterrupted. Your Complainant Jacobs has used the way several
